A STIFF ALIEN LABOR LAW

Our Tariff—A Swiss Treaty—
Pail Dismal—An English Paper
Silver—U. S. Pass Traffic—
Riots in India—Joe and Billy

Toronto, Sept. 22.—Sweeping alien labor clauses have been added to Crown Treaty regulations by the Ontario Cabinet. The new regulations permit holders, under penalty of suspension of license and seizure of timber must not employ immigrants, including foreign, any one of a resident of any other country, except a manager in full charge of operations, stock keeper, and an estimator per each operation, unless by special permission.

The United States registered tug towing may employ a captain, engineer, or fireman, all supplied under the same regulations, such as a resident of Canada except by special permission.

CANADIAN TARIFF.—A Montreal Star cable says: In view of the uncertainties in the minds of English shippers respecting the Canadian tariff, the London Chamber of Commerce is issuing tomorrow explanatory circulars.

NAME OLD CHESTNUT.—
Australasian, September 22.—The rejection of the Greek-Turkish peace treaty, just signed by the Sultan and the representative of the Greek government, has been seriously discussed by the Greek government, and the Greek cabinet is seriously discussing the possibility of the treaty being signed.

POINT ANERCA, California, Sept. 22.—The U. S. battleship Monterey ran ashore in a fog six miles north of here yesterday.

London, September 22.—Chris Martin, old merchant tailor, is dead.

THE SILVER QUESTION.—
London, September 22.—The Evening Standard this afternoon made the following announcement: "We are profoundly moved by the receipt of an extraordinary letter of the governor of the Bank of England, in which he has been called for tomorrow morning in connection with the silver question."

THE LITIGANT MURDER.—
Chicago, September 22.—The defendant in the Litigant murder case, the evidence for the prosecution is being taken. The defense begins with an opening statement in Litigant's defense. The defense will introduce evidence to attempt to show that Mr. Litigant is alive and in Germany.

HIS DECISION GIVEN.—
Washington, September 22.—Attorney General Sherman today announced his decision on the matter of Section 22 in the new tariff bill. He holds that goods coming directly into the United States from foreign countries through Canadian ports are not subject to a discriminating duty of 10 per cent, and also that foreign goods shipped from countries other than British possessions in British waters are not subject to the discriminating duty.

THE CAT CAME BACK.—
Ottawa, Sept. 22.—A curious incident here that Dr. Levin, C.M.P., is tired of his immigration, and is tired of making arrangements to get back into Canadian politics. The cat may run in North Renfrew for the Ontario Legislature.

SENATOR RYAN.—
Vancouver, Sept. 22.—The Empress of India arrived from the Orient yesterday. The following passengers on board have occurred in Nagano prefecture in consequence of discontent felt over the high price of rice. A mob of 200 persons attacked the residence of a bank manager and the police had to charge the mob. Several persons were killed and wounded and many others were made.

RELIABLE ALREADY.—
Washington, September 22.—Jon Leach, the Alaska pioneer and explorer, who came to the Klondike with Secretary Alfred about a method of relief for the destitution which he believes will create those who have crowded into the Klondike, called on the president today. The president discussed the situation with Ladd and appeared deeply interested in the suggestions for the relief of the Klondike.

Ladd estimates that there are about 10,000 people in the Klondike and provision will not close for a month. He advises that a conveyer be despatched across the Chilkoot pass to Chukchee to advise all to embark on the proposed steamer for St. Michaels.

In addition he advises the establishment of stations along the Chilkoot pass, with day trippers conveying relief supplies. Before leaving the White House, Ladd presented Mrs. McKinley with a half-silver suggestion of silver gold.

The Glass of Fashion Up-to-date

This publication (monthly) is one of the latest productions of its kind. It is issued by the Delicatore Publishing Co., of Toronto, and contains nearly all the information usually found in the Delicatore.

We have taken hold of the Glass of Fashion here—not with the idea of making money out of it, but as a means of keeping our Butterick Pattern Department before the public—and we are now prepared to accept subscriptions for it at 25c per annum, or 5c a copy. We cannot do it justice in trying to describe it so we ask you to look at it when you are in the store. It is quite capable of speaking for itself.

We have just received a complete assortment of the world-famed "P. D." Corsets. Made in France, and every pair guaranteed.
